Grand Canal

Taking a gondola ride while listening to an Italian serenade while floating in a gondola through the Venetian's Grand Canal Shoppes is a relaxing and entertaining experience.

GONDOLA

$ 64 CAN

Scuola Grande di San

This Building was built in the Renaissance period, but displays traces of successive interventions up until the Baroque period.

A Guide in Venice. There are official licensed guides who offer private guided tours either standard tours or customized tours specially designed for small groups and independent travellers. Besides the art and cultural scene, A Guide in Venice is also eager to introduce you to the actual life of Venice as well sharing useful advice on food, local crafts, leisure and main events.

Gondoliers are people who drive gondola's around. They may also be provided as a tour guide or a serenade during the gondola ride.

Venice

Italy Europe

The City On Water

Trip Around Venice

Grand Canal

Venice's main water thoroughfare, lined with great Renaissance palaces

San Rocco (Scuola of St. Rocco)

You will find some of the beautiful works of art from the painter Tintoretto.

Palazzo Ducale

A gothic like building that's sculptural decoration dates from various periods. The interior has artworks by artists such as Titian, Veronese, Tintoretto, A.Vittoria and Tiepolo.

La Laguna

Many famous islands that can be found on this large body of water located between Venice and the Adriatic Sea.
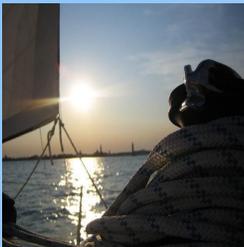

Activities

Art Museums

The city on water has many famous artworks dating back to the Renaissance period, so this attracts many art loves and artists.

Religious Sites

Venice used to have many churches and religious sites because Venice was a big part of the renaissance.

Gondola

Being the city on water they need a way to travel. Gondolas are a traditional, rowing boats. They are suited to the conditions of Venice's Lagoons.
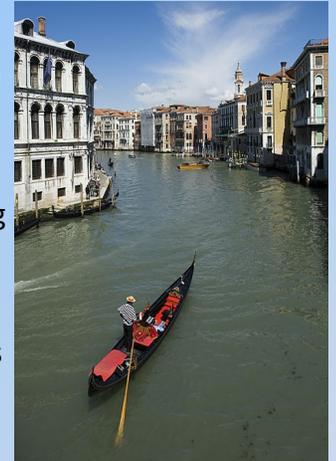

Hotels

AHR Hotel Antille
Via Monte Rosa 2 Cazzago Pianiga, VE 30030 Italy

A family friendly hotel and cost efficient.

$266.00

For 2 rooms